

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Credit Unions and those organizations and agencies which serve them reflect the deep and abiding philosophy of cooperation and its honest practice, providing members a safe place of trust for savings and access to credit at fair, reasonable rates of interest determined by the membership itself; and,

WHEREAS, Credit Unions quietly demonstrate a special ability to further the socio-economic development of people everywhere who have the opportunity to join; and,

WHEREAS, Credit Unions amply reveal unexpected human and financial resources to be found in all communities if the chance for establishment of a credit union is provided; and,

WHEREAS, Credit Unions follow the laws and regulations which rule their operations because wise and supportive legislation ensures the members' savings and offers institutional legitimacy and security; and,

WHEREAS, Credit Unions effect the lives of more than the members alone, but their families as well, and extend to the communities in which they live, thereby benefitting many others:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the great State of South Dakota, do hereby publicly proclaim October 20, 1983, as thereby recognizing the tireless efforts of today's credit union leaders and volunteers, workers and members to maintain viable and practical credit unions, and to honor the memories and the legacies of the great credit union pioneers who have made possible what we have today.

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
